

out of town

SILENT CINEMA

Catch comedy classics with Buster Keaton's 1927 flick College and Charley Bowers' 1926 outing Now You Tell One on the big screen with live organ and piano music from Paul Paviour. Saturday, 2pm, St Jude's, 34 Bendooley Street, Bowral, $20, ozsilentfilmfestival.com.au.

DUNE RATS

After a sold-out national tour, the Brisbane rock outfit and Triple J favourites are on a regional run to play tracks from their latest album, The Kids Will Know It's Bullshit. Saturday, 8pm, The Entrance Leagues Club, 3 Bay Village Road, Bateau Bay, $37.75, kingdomsounds.oztix.com.au.

FARM GATE TOUR

Get an insider's look at rural living with 12 properties opening their doors to let sustainable agriculture. Attendees can tailor their own itinerary to drop by whichever farms tickle their fancy. Saturday until Monday, throughout Port Macquarie, $30, 6585 4465, hastinglandcare.org.au.

LE GRAND TANGO

principal cellist Teije Hylkema and pianist Grace Kim perform a program including music from Argentine tango composer Astor Piazzolla. Sunday, 10.30am-1pm, Hydro Majestic Hotel, 52-88 Great Western Highway, Medlow Bath

visual art

CLAUDIA NICHOLSON

Drawing on Colombian myths, the rites and rituals of Catholicism and contemporary Chola culture, Colombian-born Australian artist Claudia Nicholson produces a mix of paintings, ceramics (pictured) and performance works that explore identity, heritage and their connection to her own experience. Until July 1, Arterreal Gallery, 747 Darling Street, Rozelle, arterreal.com.au.

